Dear Parents/Carers,

We are delighted to invite your child to take part in 'The Secret Artist'.
The children are asked to complete a piece of artwork that will be displayed in school for children to guess the artist. Staff will be taking part too so we can have lots of fun guessing who has created what.

The children might choose to create art that is inspired by a famous artist so they could create dotty art like Yayoi Kusama, sculptures like Barbara Hepworth or make a Matisse-inspired collage. Alternatively, they could use their imagination and create something of their own.

Any forms of art or craft can be included, so the children could create a painting, drawing, sculpture, photograph, print, collage, weaving or textile art - any kind of art they like!

If the children need some inspiration, there are lots of ideas on the Tate Kids website. https://www.tate.org.uk/kids/make

Please bring artwork into school on Monday 8th June - ideally in a named bag, so that it remains secret (for the time being).

Kind regards,
Mrs Hunter and the art leaders
